F.S. Ch. 119.07(4)(d). A Special Service Charge is assessed when a request requires over 15 minutes to complete. The charge is determined by the hourly salary of the lowest paid individual that can complete the request X the amount of time spent on the request (in 1/4 hour increments). There is no special service charge for the first 15 minutes.

\ The Town of Palm Beach charges actual duplication costs for copies of public records requests. These costs may vary from department to department depending upon the equipment utilized by each department. If a request is received by a department that does not maintain the office having the public records, the fee assessed per copy shall be determined by the department(s) charged with the responsibility of maintaining the office having the public records.*
