RECYCLOPEDIA

Hello Palm Beach County resident:

In 2008, the Florida Legislature enacted House Bill 7135 that established a new statewide recycling goal of 75% to be achieved by the year 2020.

Good news was the Department of Environmental Protection saying that Florida's recycling rate in 2013 was 49%, well above the 40% target rate specified in Florida Statute. Even better news was that Palm Beach County was among the 14 counties that are leading the way with 2013 recycling rates between 51% and 73%.

- Hillsborough - 73%
- Lee - 70%
- Hendry - 68%
- Pasco - 67%
- Pinellas - 62%
- Broward - 60%
- Collier - 60%
- Sarasota - 57%
- Palm Beach - 56% (Thank you for helping us to achieve this)
- Martin - 56%
- Monroe - 55%
- Alachua - 54%
- Brevard - 54%
- Manatee - 51%

But, we need your help! The Solid Waste Authority of Palm Beach County offers dual stream recycling. This means each customer, no matter if they live in a municipality or in unincorporated parts of the county (with the exception of residents living in the City of Lake Worth), has a Blue bin for recyclable containers, like glass, plastic, and steel and aluminum cans; and a Yellow bin for paper products, like cardboard, junk mail, magazines, and office paper. A full list of the all the acceptable recyclables is available at www.SWA.org/RecycleRight.

This dual stream process is different than in many other part of the state. It helps us produce a cleaner, recycled commodity that is demanded by those manufacturers that buy them. It also helps us get the highest value for the materials we recycle, while landfilling as little as possible. This financial benefit of your recycling efforts goes back into your community as a Revenue Share. Since the SWA started the Revenue Share program in 2010, local municipalities have received more than $7.5 million dollars due to your recycling efforts.

We need you to keep it up! Remember to Recycle Right! Put the right thing in the right bin, while remembering that not everything is recyclable.

If you need additional recycling bins or educational materials to help you Recycle Right, please call us at 866-NEW-BINS (866-639-2467).

Thank you for doing your part to help us reach this 75% recycling goal. With everyone's help, we should far surpass it.

RECYCLING AT HOME QUESTIONS

I have curbside garbage service and I want to recycle! How do I get recycling bins for my house?

- Contact the Solid Waste Authority of Palm Beach County at 866-NEW-BINS (866-639-2467). Residents can also order curbside recycling bins on SWA's website. Go to www.SWA.org and click on "Need Bins?" in the upper right-hand corner of the main page. Choose "Residential" in the drop-down menu and fill out the form. Recycling bins will be delivered to the house at no charge.

My bins are cracked and falling apart. Can I get replacements?

- Yes you can. The SWA will replace damaged recycling bins. Simply call the telephone number listed above or visit our website. The SWA will not replace recycling bins simply because they are dirty. As you would routinely wash your garbage can, please do the same with your recycling bins.

I have more recyclables each week than will fit in my Blue (or Yellow) curbside recycling bin. Can I get more bins or a larger bin?

- Yes, residents can request additional 18-gallon Blue and Yellow bins for curbside collection. Currently that is the largest bin that is available for residents with curbside service. There is no charge for additional recycling bins.

I live in an apartment or condo complex and there is no recycling available. I want to recycle, what do I do?

- Contact the SWA at 866-639-2467. A member of our Public Affairs and Recycling team will contact the management office or the HOA for the complex to explain the benefits of allowing recycling for the residents. However, recycling is not mandatory and HOA management has the right to refuse recycling on the premises.
- These residents can take their recycling to one of the SWA's seven Home Chemical and Recycling Centers. For the locations, go to www.SWA.org/HCRC.

Why do I have to use two different bins? Can't I put all of my paper items and cans, bottles and jars into one bin?

- The SWA uses what is called a dual stream recycling system, meaning paper items are collected separately from cans, bottles and jars. By keeping these items separate, the SWA is able to produce a cleaner product to sell to the mills that buy recyclables, and in general, sell the products at a higher price than those recovered from a single stream system (all recyclables put into one container). The revenue received from the sale of the materials is shared with 37 municipalities and is used to keep costs down.
